Researching the Cottrill family is rendered somewhat difficult by the different spelling of the name. The older Cottrills were apparently casual spellers and the census recorders no better. The name is variously spelled Cotterell, Cottrill, Cottrell, Cottrail, Cotrel and Coterel. At least one early Cottrell is also listed as "Cockrell" in various recrds.

The origin of the Virginia Cottrells has not been established. Old records in various places list Cottrells, but a connection is yet to be made. The "New England Historical Register" lists a Nicholas Cottrill as having landed in Connecticut in 1635.

The Latter Day Saints genealogical library records the marriage of a Thomas Cotterell to Martha Hacher May 25, 1709 at New Kent, St. Peters Parish in Virginia. The same source also records the christening of Thomas Cotterell at St. Peter's Parish April 22, 1711. This second Thomas is apparently a son of Thomas and Martha (Hacher) Cottrell, born prior to the christening date.

Other Cottrells are listed in the records of Charles, Baltimore, Dorchester and Prince George's counties as early as 1721.

1.PETER COTTRELL

Peter Cottrell was born about 1720 in Virginia. He is listed in various records as "Peter Cockrell", "Peter Cockrill", and "Peter Cottrell". A greater number of records use the "Cockrell" or "Cockrill" spelling, suggesting that the original name was probably Cockrill.

Peter married Priscilla Galloway in Baltimore County MD February 4, 1747. Apparently Priscilla died and Peter married Ann Hazelrigg. His third wife was Frances and her last name may have been Thorne.

Although we have no death date for Peter, his will is dated July 18, 1803 and reads as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Peter Cottrell of Prince William County Virginia being sick and weak in body, of sound and disposing mind and memory, knowing that it is appointed for all men to die, do make and ordain this my Last Will and Testament, commending my soul unto the hands of Almighty God, hoping alone for Salvation through the merits of Jesus Christ and my body to the dust to be buried in decent Christian burial at the discretion of my Executors. As to such Worldly Estate as it hath pleased God to bless me with I dispose thereof as follows.

Item. Two third of my Movable Estate I give unto my sons Jesse Cottrell and Moses Cottrell to be equally divided between them. If one or either of them should die and leave no lawfully begotten heir behind them in that case I will that the Surviving part of the children begotten by my last wife shall divide the said two thirds of the Movable Estate equally.

Item. After my wifes decease I will that the one third of the Moveable Estate which she had the use of and the Negro man Jacob be equally divided between my sons Jesse and Moses.

Item. I have given each of my Daughters Peggy Reid and Mary Kohn Fifty Dollars and wish here to make this stipulation - Peggy Reid may have her choice the fifty dollars or a Negro girl named Maria - Peggy may either take the fifty dollars given above or Kates next child. If the money be preferred, the two Negro children shall divide amongst Nancy Cottrell, Sarah Daniel, Jesse Cottrell and Moses Cottrell. It is not definitely known which of Peter's wives are mothers of the various children. However, their ages suggest that Frances was the mother of five children.
